

Warblers & Wildflowers

Spend Time with Mother Nature on Shenandoah Mountain

A FREE
Mother's Day
Weekend Event!

Date: Sat., May 8, 2021

Time: 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Where: Choose from three Virginia Birding and Wildlife Trail sites

Explore the tremendous biodiversity on Shenandoah Mountain with your family. This will be a Bioblitz-style event for warblers and wildflowers, using iNaturalist and eBird as tools. Participants will identify as many species as possible at each of the Virginia Birding and Wildlife Trail sites listed below. Each site will have a table with an information display and a biologist, a birder, and a Master Naturalist to help participants explore and identify what they find.

This event will be held in light rain or shine. No registration necessary. Restrooms available.

Virginia Birding and Wildlife Trail Sites

Visit as many of these sites as you like:

Hone Quarry – Meet at Picnic Area, walk along native trout stream, view birds and wildflowers, hemlock forest, wheelchair accessible.

Braley Pond - Meet at Picnic Area, take 1/2 mile hike around beautiful pond, view birds, wildflowers, salamanders and tadpoles.

Shenandoah Mountain Crest on Rt. 250 - Scenic view of Highland County, walking tour of Confederate Breast Works with interpretive signs, birds, history.

Hosted by:

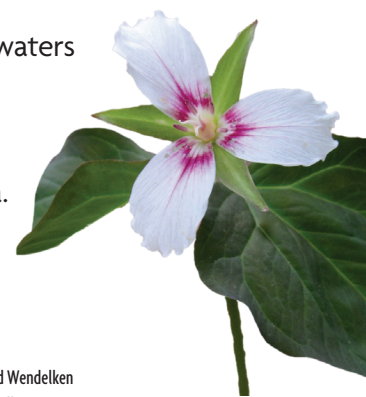

Friends of Shenandoah Mountain and Headwaters Chapter, Virginia Master Naturalists.

Covid Safe

Please bring a mask to wear in the table area. No need for masks when families are exploring on their own.

Chestnut-sided Warbler photo by David Wendelken
Hooded Warbler photo by David Wendelken
Painted Trillium photo by Lynn Cameron
Braley Pond photo by Lynn Camero

For More Information and directions scan this code with your phone or visit <https://www.friendsofshenandoahmountain.org/celebrate-mother-nature.html>